EQUALITY, DIVERSITY & INCLUSION POLICY

Scope

Baltic Apprenticeships is committed to providing an inclusive learning and working environment, that is not only free from discrimination and unfair treatment, but which actively values and celebrates difference.

Diversity and Inclusion are at the heart of the company's mission which is to provide opportunities for diverse talent to realise their full potential. As such we are committed to creating an environment in which every individual can thrive.

This policy and any associated procedures apply to all staff, apprentices, contractors and other affiliates of Baltic Apprenticeships. Every learner, employer and staff member has rights and responsibilities under the Equality Act, 2010.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion training is also provided through our e-learning programmes which include videos, presentations and exercises which are delivered to all staff and learners.

This policy applies to all Baltic Apprenticeship employees and our apprentices, learners and contractors.

Purpose

The overall aim of this policy is to ensure that Baltic Apprenticeships is a place where learning and working exists in an environment that promotes equality of opportunity, celebrates diversity, and allows everyone to achieve to their full potential.

Baltic Apprenticeships will take every reasonable and practicable step to ensure that no staff member or learner receives less favourable treatment on account of disability, age, sexual orientation, race, religion or belief, gender reassignment, sex, marital status and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity or is disadvantaged by conditions or requirements which cannot be shown to be relevant to performance. The policy seeks also to ensure that no person is victimised or subjected to any form of bullying or harassment.

All staff and learners are covered by this policy and it applies to all areas of employment including recruitment, selection, training and career development. These areas are monitored and policies and practices are amended if necessary to ensure that no discrimination exists.

Equality of opportunity, valuing diversity and compliance with the law is to the benefit of all individuals in our Company as it seeks to develop the skills and abilities of its people. While specific responsibility for eliminating discrimination and providing equality of opportunity lies with managers and supervisors, staff at all levels and all learners have a responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect. The personal commitment of every staff member and learner to this policy and application of its principles are essential to eliminate discrimination and provide equality throughout Baltic Apprenticeships.

Our commitment to Inclusive Recruitment

1. All staff involved in selection or interviewing shall be trained to ensure that appointments are made on an objective basis.
2. All recruitment material and processes, including advertisements will be available, in a variety of formats upon request.
3. Recruitment practice and procedures shall be as open and as barrier free as possible. Baltic Apprenticeships upholds the Disability Confident Accreditation and will ensure reasonable adjustments are made throughout the recruitment journey.
4. Application forms and other supporting material will only ask for relevant factual information.
5. Selection criteria is specific to the person specification and criteria enclosed within the job description. Shortlists will be produced by 2 or more recruiting managers or a member of the People Team.
6. No applicant shall be disadvantaged by an interview's timing, location or facilities
7. Baltic Apprenticeships' mission is to create opportunities for diverse talent to realise their potential. We are particularly focused on ensuring that equality of opportunity is paramount throughout the recruitment and selection process.

Our commitment to Equality and Diversity Training

Baltic Apprenticeships is committed to:

- Providing training to all its employees which encourages an awareness of this policy and our commitment to promoting equality and diversity in our organization and in all of our work.

- Training will include internally delivered training for all new starters as part of our employee onboarding procedures and through our e-learning programmes, as well as more formal training where appropriate.
- In all circumstances, training will be designed to ensure that Baltic Apprenticeships' employees are able to apply the principles of this policy in their daily work- for example, by including concepts like Fundamental British Values into the training.
- All staff will be required to refresh their Equality and Diversity training at least annually and we will proactively seek opportunities to secure other training to reinforce our teams' understanding of the equality, diversity and inclusion agenda.
- All learners will complete a personal development programme which includes learning modules on Equality, Diversity & Inclusion and the application of the Equality Act in the workplace.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Monitoring

We will collect and closely monitor data on both the diversity of our employees and apprentices, in addition to staff and apprentice experience.

Through this monitoring we aim to continually improve our diversity and inclusion practices, policies and our Equality, Diversity and Inclusion strategy.
